

Our energies for a Better Life

Facility Management

Bouygues Energies & Services in the UK is a provider of facility management to a large range of commercial and public sector clients.

We currently maintain in excess of one million square metres of accommodation through a diverse portfolio of projects, across the education, healthcare, government, industrial and commercial sectors. Our expertise covers the full range of asset management services including, Hard FM [1], Soft FM [2], Total FM [3] and energy management [4].

In addition to these services, the business provides design and build [5], integrated solutions in critical environments and infrastructure services, with over 50 years experience in lighting [6] and connections [7].

Services include:

- Facility management - cleaning, catering, front of house, maintenance engineering, security, portering, logistics, internal fit-out and project management.
- Energy management - strategic carbon planning, energy compliance and procurement, infrastructure design, installation and maintenance.