Soft FM

Ensuring a safe, clean, healthy and welcoming environment is crucial and lies at the heart of our approach to soft services.

Whether you require stand-alone soft services or total FM [1], we are experienced in delivering a range of services to meet the business needs of our clients.

Working with a range of organisations in the public and private sectors, we recognise the value and importance of soft FM services. Our people are often the first point of contact for our clients' staff, visitors, customers and the general public, so we tailor our services to their needs and to reflect our clients' image and brand.

Self-delivery is at the heart of our business approach, removing traditional service demarcations and providing high-quality services with a simple focus – excellence and value.

Our services include:

- Cleaning
- Security
- Catering, Vending and hospitality
- Reception and switchboard
